

Hamptons & North Fork

Lighthouse Waves by Day, Vineyard Sunsets by Night

Check-In — Gurney's Montauk Resort & Seawater Spa

Check-in 4pm · from $714 USD/night

An oceanfront resort on its own stretch of Montauk beach, with a seawater spa and several on-site restaurants - the classic Montauk splurge stay.

Gurney's Montauk Resort & Seawater Spa | 1-631-668-2345 | gurneysresorts.com/montauk

Day 2

Hamptons Wine Country to Shelter Island

Backtrack west through the Hamptons' vineyard country and a whaling-village stop in Sag Harbor, then take the short ferry crossing to Shelter Island on the way to the North Fork.

Wine Tasting — Wölffer Estate Vineyard

Reserve ahead · tastings typically $35-50 USD/person

The Hamptons' best-known winery, famous for its rosé and a sweeping lawn framed by a windmill-topped tasting pavilion. Reservations fill up on weekends, especially for a table on the lawn.

Wölffer Estate Vineyard | 631-537-5106 | wolffer.com

Sag Harbor Village Stroll

1-2 hours · free

A former whaling port with a walkable Main Street of 19th-century sea captains' houses, independent bookshops, and the landmark Sag Harbor Cinema marquee - a good lunch-on-your-own stop between the vineyards and the ferry.

Shelter Island Ferry Crossing — South Ferry

~10 minute crossing · $20 USD one-way for a car + driver

A short car ferry from North Haven across Shelter Island Sound - no reservations, first-come first-served, running continuously in season. Shelter Island itself is worth a slow drive across before picking up the North Ferry on the far side toward Greenport.

South Ferry | (631) 749-1200 | southferry.com

Check-In — Sound View Greenport

Check-in 4pm · from $477 USD/night

Day 3

North Fork Wine Trail & Greenport

A slower last day among the North Fork's vineyards - cheaper and less crowded than the Hamptons side - before a harborfront lunch in Greenport and the drive home.

Tasting — Jamesport Vineyards

Reservations required · flights from roughly $20-30 USD/person

One of the North Fork's original wineries, housed in a restored 1800s barn, with a kitchen serving wood-fired flatbreads alongside the tasting flights. Guests must be 21+ on Friday evenings and weekends.

Jamesport Vineyards | 631-722-5256 | jamesportwines.com

Greenport Village & Harborfront

1-2 hours · free (carousel rides ~$2)

A working fishing port turned walkable village, with a restored 1920s carousel on the waterfront, tall ships docked at the pier, and a row of shops and galleries along Front Street.

Lunch — Claudio's

Lunch · $30-50 USD/person

A Greenport waterfront landmark run by the same family since 1870, with a marina-side dining room and a more casual clam bar downstairs - the classic last stop before heading back toward the city.

Claudio's | (631) 477-0627 | claudios.com

Drive Home

~2.5-3 hours to NYC via the LIE

Head back west on Route 25 to the Long Island Expressway - build in extra time on Sunday afternoons, when weekend-getaway traffic backs up heading into the city.